

War Services Group Program Under Way

Committee Acts To Alleviate Meat Shortage Problem—Plans Nursery Care For War Workers' Children—Block Plan Discussed

The executive committee of the Arlington War Services committee met at the Report Center Monday evening, under the leadership of its general chairman, Mrs. Russell T. Hamlet.

The vital and immediate problem of the meat shortage was thoroughly discussed and plans were made to help the women of Arlington solve it. Under the sponsorship of the Arlington Committee on Public Safety, three demonstrations will be given during the week of February 8, to make Arlington women better acquainted with the less-well-known cuts of meat which are so nutritious and of which there is a plentiful supply. These demonstrations will be given by Mrs. Hazel Cheever, Home Services Director of the Arlington Gas Light company.

Other important problems discussed at the meeting was that of providing nursery care for the small children of mothers who are working in defense plants. A group of volunteers interested in doing this type of work, will be given proper training and when their training is complete, a careful survey will be made in the town to make certain that working mothers are informed of this invaluable service.

The general subject of home gardening and home and community canning was touched upon.

Under the supervision of one of the committee's vicechairmen, Mrs. Francis Chamberlain, the block plan, wherein there will be a community worker for approximately every ten homes in the town, is nearing completion. At least half of the fourteen precincts in the town are now completely organized. Volunteers are still being sought for this important job, and anyone willing to give some time to this project should call either Mrs. Chamberlain or Mrs. Hamlet.

Mrs. Joseph Bevins, chairman of the Salvage Committee reports that the tin can collection last week was highly successful. Mrs.

Bevins also stated that old silk and nylon hosiery is being salvaged in the town, there being a bin for its collection at Grant's in the Center, and another at the Brackett School at the Heights.

In addition to Mrs. Hamlet, Mrs. Chamberlain, and Mrs. Cheever, the members of the Committee attending Monday's meeting were: Mrs. Albert Wunderley, nutrition; Mrs. Americo Chaves, social service; Mrs. Wilson D. Clark, Jr., chairman of Civilian Defense for the Arlington Community Planning Council; Mrs. Miriam S. Black, nutritionist, Boston Metropolitan Red Cross Chapter; Mrs. Marian Sodergist, canteen; Mrs. Leroy Shaw, member of the town committee on gardening, food preservation and nutrition program; Mrs. Ruberta B. Norris, vice chairman; and Mrs. W. Parker Wood, publicity.

Court Street "One Way"

Because of the heavy increase in automobile traffic on Court street since the office of the rationing board was opened, in the postoffice building, the board of selectmen this week voted to make this street "one way."

Vehicles will be allowed to move on this street, only northerly, from Massachusetts avenue to Court St. place.

This action was taken upon the recommendation of Chief Archie F. Bullock.

War Bond Sales

The sale of war savings bonds at the Woolworth booth last week totaled $750.00. Stamps, $400.00. Your filled stamp books may be converted into bonds at this booth.

Town Hit By Heavy Storm

Every available piece of snow-fighting equipment was put to action yesterday afternoon as the worst storm of the winter hit this section. This morning, Arlington was buried under the heaviest snowfall recorded thus far this year.

Snow began to fall early yesterday afternoon and increased in intensity later in the day and evening. Stalled autos were a common sight and public transportation facilities moved under most trying conditions.

All of New England was affected.

Four Hurt As Car Hits Tree

Four persons were rushed to the Symmes hospital in the police ambulance late last Thursday night to be treated for injuries received when the car in which they were riding crashed against a tree in front of 135 Pleasant street.

The injured were: Joseph Espino, of Medford, said to be the driver of the car, who was the most seriously injured; Marianne Tofoli, of Winchester; Leon W. Siasak, U. S. Coast Guardsman; and Doris I. Lambdin, of Baltimore, Md., all of whom received injuries about the head and face.

REGISTRATION OF VOTERS

The following dates and places are announced for the registration of persons possessing the necessary qualifications who may wish to become voters in the Town of Arlington.

All citizens of the United States who have lived one year in the Commonwealth and six months in Arlington, and can read and write, may apply for registration.

Applicants who have become citizens either through direct naturalization or the naturalization of parents, must produce citizenship papers.

Sgt. White Returns From Pacific Front

Stationed at Pearl Harbor on that memorable December 7, Sergeant Joseph White, of 27 Mill St., who served in Captain Colin Kelly's squadron, and later saw plenty of action in the South Pacific, has been thrilling his fellow-citizens with accounts of his experiences.

Sergeant White, only a few years ago a member of the Arlington Boys' club, is now on a thirty day leave after being hospitalized on account of an eye injury received during an encounter with a Jap plane. For military reasons, the young Arlingtonian is guarded in his statements. He speaks in glowing terms of his fellow officers in the Air Force, and of the planes and other military equipment produced by this country. On the other hand, the Japs are no pushovers, he says, but quickly adds, every American on the war front is worth four Japs.

White's enthusiasm and patriotism is truly extraordinary. His face beams with pride as he tells of American exploits in the Pacific.

Sergeant White, conveys the impression, in no unmistakable terms, that the boys in the Pacific war theatre are determined to wipe out the Japs. The young Arlingtonian, who dodged Jap bombs in the cowardly attack on Pearl Harbor, and later took part in many air battles against Jap planes as a gunner, does not have to be told much more about the Jap menace and treachery.

The American people have still sacrificed far less than any other people in the world, despite rationing and shortages, in Sergeant White's opinion.

Sergeant White, who will return to duty at March Field in mid-February, will be awarded the Purple Heart next Sunday.

Truck Skids Into Pole; Ice, Fog Hamper Autoists

A Town truck skidded into a pole on Summer street, buses were stalled and their passengers had to walk home the rest of the way, and motorists, generally, were forced to leave their cars home or at the curb wherever they happened to be parked, Saturday evening, when the worst ice conditions of the winter were experienced.

Sleet later in the evening formed a crust on the glare ice and made resumption of motoring possible.

The truck, operated by George H. Reynolds, of 34 Franklin street, skidded on the ice opposite 21 Summer street, and crashed into a pole, knocking it down. Reynolds escaped injury.

Much of the ice and snow melted away Sunday as the mercury began to climb. Motorists were again handicapped Monday when the thickest fog in years blanketed this section and reduced visibility to near zero. Dimout regulations, reducing street-lighting and the power of auto headlights, made it all the more difficult for motorists.

Pedestrians who persisted in walking in the streets instead of using sidewalks added to the worries of motorists.

Horticultural Hall Setting For Spring Flower Show In March

Boston is still to have its famous Spring Flower Show, presented in more beautiful style, though on a slightly lessened scale, since the show will again return to its original home in Horticultural Hall, four floors of which will be utilized for the big exhibition March 13 through March 20.

Victory Garden information will be a big feature.

Experts will be on hand to give information on vegetable culture, canning or preserving and food storage. The Horticultural Society has a comprehensive plan under way for assisting home gardeners with their food production programs and this will be well demonstrated at the Flower Show.

According to Arno H. Nehrling, exhibition manager, every inch of space on the four floors will be filled with attractively arranged exhibits so as to present all the illusion and grandeur of beautiful outdoor gardens.

Beers and Kalustian Receive Tufts Degrees

MALCOLM A. BEERS

Malcolm A. Beers, Arlington student, represented the School of Liberal Arts on the graduation platform, when Tufts' first class to receive degrees under the accelerated wartime program graduated Tuesday evening, at a special degree convocation held in Cousens Gymnasium, Medford.

Beers, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rowland T. Beers of 28 Peabody road, is a graduate of Arlington high school. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholarship society, and of Zeia Psi fraternity. He was the highest ranking student in his school to graduate at Tufts midwinter exercises.

Edward Kalustian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Setrak Kalustian of 50 Lockland avenue, received the degree of Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering from the Engineering School.

The degree convocation, at which the two Arlington young men graduated, was the first of three graduations which will be held at Tufts in 1943. This week's exercises were for students of the School of Liberal Arts, the Engineering School and Jackson. In March dental and medical students will graduate, and in May the regular commencement exercises for all schools will be held.

National Scout Council Representative Speaks In Arlington Next Week

JOHN O. SHANKS
Assistant National Director of Volunteer Training, Boy Scouts of America

The Leadership Training Committee of Sachem Council has arranged to have John O. Shanks appear before two groups of Scouts and discuss training procedure, policies and program for 1943.

The first will be Monday evening at a Council Commissioners' dinner in the Old Mill. Following this Shanks will meet with the commissioners at the Council office.

On Tuesday evening, a group of men on the Leadership Training committee will hold an informal discussion with this representative from the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Mr. Shanks joined the national staff on the Boy Scouts in June, 1942 after advancing in the movement from Tenderfoot Scout in 1922.

Shelters Provided

Plans have been completed by the evacuation unit of the Arlington Committee on Public Safety to provide temporary, heated quarters for residents of this town who may be forced to leave their homes in the event of an unusual fuel shortage here.

This organizational work has been prepared under the leadership of Brayton D. Fisher, acting chairman.

Five of these temporary quarters have been designated for emergency use by the townspeople, and the following district chairmen have made arrangements so that the locations can be utilized:

District 1 — Acting chairman, B. D. Fisher, Parmenter School, Irving street, 99 cots.

District 2 — Chairman, Harold N. Anderson, Locke School, Park avenue, 180 cots.

District 3 — Chairman, Ralph Lansing, Pierce School, Park avenue, extension, 706 cots.

District 4 — Chairman, Edward D. Buckley, Crosby School, Winter street, 76 cots.

District 5 — Acting Chairman, B. D. Fisher, Ye Lantern Hall, 69 Pond lane, 23 cots.

Arlington's Campaign Now Two Days Ahead Of Schedule — Scores Of Volunteers Making Calls This Week—Goal Is $33,500 By February 10—Organizations Contributing

Arlington's showing thus far in the Greater Boston United War fund drive is most satisfactory, with total collections already two days ahead of schedule, it was learned yesterday.

Although the drive will not end until February 10, General Chairman Roscoe O. Elliott and other officials of the local Arlington campaign, have expressed the hope that most part of Arlington's $33,500 quota will be collected by this week-end.

Several local organizations have already made substantial contributions to the fund. They include: Arlington Rotary, Arlington Kiwanis, R. D. Lend-A-Hand, Arlington K. of C., Samaritan Society of the First Universalist church, the Zonta club, Arlington Woman's Club, Theta Epsilon, Arlington Sons of Italy and Arlington Post 1775, V.F.W., Arlington Fortnightly, Girl Scout Troop 21, Girl Scout Brownie Troop 3, Willing Workers Club, Kappa Phi Delta, Arlington Ladies' Lodge 1709, and Kensington Park Study Club.

Speeding along with a momentum born of wartime emergencies and world wide humanitarian needs, the War Fund has now reached the third-way mark in its intensive 20-day campaign for a grand total of $7,800,000.

Citizens generally have shown appreciation of the vital appeal, and have received volunteers courteously. Scores of volunteers are making house-to-house calls in the interest of the fund-raising campaign which will make it possible, among other things, to support the activities of seven worthy Arlington agencies.

The following are serving as precinct directors, with captains and volunteers working under their supervision:

E. J. Duffy, Milton Bretscher, Martin Roach, Joseph Burns, William Holian, W. G. Porter, George Tucker, James B. Donaldson, John S. Crosby, Richard Johnson, Andrew Cuniff, Walter Alsen, Robert Brown and Daniel Hurley.

Even Arlington men, now in the armed forces, have sent in contributions. This is particularly significant since these men are familiar with the good work of the U.S.O., one of the war agencies benefiting from the War Fund drive. No one is better fitted to judge the work of the U.S.O.

Citizens' Committee Maps Election Plans

Plans for the forthcoming town election were mapped out at a meeting of the Citizens' committee, in Wyman's tavern, Tuesday evening, Russell T. Hamlet presided in the absence of Chairman Henry G. Wilton.

Another meeting will be held next Tuesday evening, at Wyman's, 428 Massachusetts avenue. Donald

E. Willard, Boston Globe feature writer, will speak. Every voter in Arlington is eligible for membership and is invited to hear Mr. Willard.

The qualifications committee, which will interview all candidates for town offices and make recommendations, was elected. It includes: Harold Anderson, chairman; Kingsbury Ryan, Felix Cutler, James Smith and Michael Fredo.

Dies In Fall Down Stairs

Jeremiah J. O'Brien, of 25 Pierce street, was fatally injured early Tuesday morning when he fell down a flight of stairs in his home.

His wife summoned the police ambulance which rushed the man to the Symmes hospital where he was pronounced dead by Dr. L. Curtis Foye.

The funeral of Mr. O'Brien was held from the Daniel P. O'Brien funeral home this morning, followed by a high mass of requiem in St. James church.

Mr. O'Brien was the husband of Mrs. Katherine (Buckley) O'Brien, and formerly lived in Charlestown.

Two Treated At Symmes For Accident Injuries

Two local residents were treated at the Symmes hospital over the week-end for cuts received in accidents. Mrs. Elizabeth Toomey, of 46 Kimball road, suffered lacerations of the right hand when she slipped on the front porch at her home and put her hand through a window, Sunday evening.

The second victim, Mrs. Anna Early, of 1065 Massachusetts Ave., suffered severe laceration of her right arm when she fell on a bottle, Saturday.

Coasters' Sleds Seized For Breaking Regulations

Sleds used by two boys caught coasting down Park avenue and across Massachusetts avenue, were seized by Arlington police on Sunday. Coasting across Massachusetts avenue has been strictly prohibited.

TRIBUTE TO DOCTOR

The annual meetings of the corporation and board of trustees of Symmes Arlington Hospital were held on Monday, with the vice president, Philip A. Hendrick, presiding. Officers and trustees were re-elected for the coming year. Albert M. Wolcott was added to the board.

A resolution, in tribute to the late Dr. Edwin P. Stickney, who died recently after serving Arlington many years, was adopted.

"Sure a shrapnel wound hurts. But hell! It's only a cut—and we've got a job to do. Sew it up, Doc, and let me back at their throats."

There's guts for you. That's the spirit of men who "attack until exhaustion—and then attack again." Doesn't it make you proud? Doesn't it spur you on to do something really worth while?

Sure it does. But what can we do—who are here at home?

Listen! Right now, there's a drive going on for the Greater Boston United War Fund. A drive for money—for our fighting men wherever they are—for food, clothing and medicine for the bombed civilians of our Allied Nations—for War Prisoners Aid—and most important, to make our community a better place for us all.

Here is your opportunity to do something really big. So dig down, Greater Boston. Dig down now. Dig as deep as a bullet wound. No matter how much you give, it's never too much to give.

THEY DESERVE CREDIT

An editorial in last Saturday's Christian Science Monitor calls attention to the extraordinary support given the United War Fund by Boston advertisers.

Practically all regular advertisers, large and small, devoted their entire space to promotion of the War Fund campaign. We quote from the Monitor editorial:

"It may have happened in the United States at some time, but Boston thinks its experience is unique. Moreover, it reflects a selfless attitude that deserves the highest commendation."

"We refer to that extraordinary display of local advertising in all the Boston newspapers in their editions of Thursday, Jan. 21. Every store, shop, or service that ever bought newspaper space was represented—not merely by a line or a signature, but with their usual amount of space running from two-inch ads by the smaller merchants to six-column displays by the larger department or specialty stores. And not a single advertiser mentioned his product, goods, or service, but devoted his entire space to some phase of support for Boston's United War Fund."

"Merchants have co-operated with such endeavors before. Annually, for years, they have included a line, or several lines, in their advertising in the Community Fund in their display ads. Many even have put the Fund first and added a 'plug' for their particular type of goods. But never before, in the Boston organization's belief, have all advertisers in a community unanimously put their own interests aside and their copy-writers to work exclusively on the job of selling something else. These advertisers deserve to be congratulated."

Arlington firms and individuals who provided a full page announcement supporting the War Fund campaign, in Arlington, include Miss Edith M. Fox, Attorney William F. Davis, Jr., Herbert A. Hills, of the Ben Franklin Store, the David Buttrick, Co., The Arlington National Bank, the Arlington Co-operative Bank, and the Kelly Corporation. These individuals and firms responded very readily to assist in this worthy effort, and deserve our thanks for their generous cooperation.

In today's issue, the names of another group of public spirited business and professional men appear as sponsors of a full-page announcement in the interest of the Greater Boston United War Fund. This additional publicity is designed to open the door for scores of volunteer solicitors who are giving up their time to this cause, and to impress upon the citizens at large the urgency of this drive.

Philharmonic Society
Buys $75.00 War Bond

The Arlington Philharmonic Society has voted to purchase a $75.00 war bond with the profits received from the recent bond concert. The Society regrets that it will be necessary to postpone its chamber concert until Spring, due to the closing of the library at 8 p. m.

The NEWS OBSERVES

Employees of all Town departments were busy filling out their classification questionnaires this week, in connection with a survey being made of Town departments by a firm engaged by the board of selectmen in compliance with a vote of the last town meeting—and, judging from the comments, "a good time was NOT had by all."

Intensive air raids over Germany proper are following the history-making meeting of President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill at Casablanca, in Africa, where the 1943 pattern for world conflict was discussed. A "fight to the finish" is promised by the Allied Nations.

Three members of the family of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wood, of 95 Everett street, are now with Horace Heidt's popular radio and screen orchestra. Donna Wood was the first to join Horace's company. Her brother Chandler went with the group last May, and now a sister, Gloria, is doing solo work with Heidt's band.

Arlington school children bought a grand total of $3,635.00 worth of war savings bonds and stamps last week. Best showing for the week was made by Junior High Schools West and East, and Parkmer School.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Moran of 54 Irving street were pleasantly surprised last Saturday evening when their son John arrived home on furlough, just in time to attend the wedding of his brother William, who was married to Dorothy O'Connor of Arlington.

Another son, David, is somewhere in the Pacific and has been in the service over a year. A daughter, Muriel, has enlisted and been sworn in the WAACs. She is awaiting call.

George A. Harris, president of the Newspaper Guild of Boston has been appointed the Graphic Arts Division chairman of the Greater Boston United War Fund. He will act as leader of many newspaper men and women who will contact newspaper workers of all Boston papers. Harris lives on Cedar avenue.

Arlington High's basketball team defeated Wintthrop with a score of 26 to 24 Monday.

Knealy scored 17 points for Arlington.

Peirce School PTA Cancels Fathers' Night

Because of the fuel situation, it was necessary to cancel the Peirce School P. T. A. Fathers' Night planned by Harold O'Brien. A combination business meeting, Mrs. Maurice King presiding, an afternoon of games was held instead.

Mrs. Timothy Coleman, former hospitality chairman, came from Milton to tell fortunes.

Mrs. Maurice Cameron, former secretary and program chairman arranged games, assisted by: Mrs. Harold O'Brien, Mrs. Bertill Stenmark, Mrs. Westcott Atwood, Mrs. Michael McDevitt, and Mrs. Louis Kraft.

The choral group, under the direction of Mrs. Albert Englund, sang.

—Donald Green, of 167 Washington street, fractured his arm while coasting in Arlington Heights this week.

ATTENTION VOTERS

If you are a voter in Arlington, you are cordially invited to attend the Citizens' Committee meeting next Tuesday, Feb. 2, at 8 p. m. Wyman's Tavern, 428 Massachusetts avenue, to hear Don Willard, ace Boston Globe writer. (Adv't.)

Local Church Marks 102nd Anniversary

The largest attendance in a great many years marked the 102nd annual parish meeting of the First Universalist Society Sunday afternoon in the vestry of the church following a dinner served to 123 people.

David L. Peirce was re-elected president of the society. Following three years in the office of treasurer Howard H. Dawes relinquished this office to Ernest Hesselstine who has served as collector for many years. Marion Filmore continues as the clerk and Edith N. Winn as superintendent of the church school. Mr. Dawes, Mrs. Helen W. Peirce, Elizabeth Yerrinton and Henry Costa will serve on the board of trustees.

Applause was accorded Mrs. Louise Storer, eldest parishioner, aged 90, who has been attending these meetings for two thirds of a century.

Reports of parish activities were made by the minister, Rev. Robert M. Rice, Howard Dawes, Ernest Hesselstine, Robert Moore, Henry Costa, R. P. Needham, Barbara Shinn, Marion Filmore, Mrs. Bertha Smith, Mrs. Marion Peirce and W. Edward Russell.

Other parish officials serving the coming year will be Mrs. Charles Behnke, registrar; James F. Young, Ernest W. Davis, Warren J. Guild and John O. Matthews, deacons; Mrs. Marjorie Shinn and Mrs. Alice Jones, deaconesses; James O. Holt, A. Ingham Blecknell and Herbert M. Dutcher, trustees of trust funds; Katharine Yerrinton, Mrs. John M. Ratcliff and R. P. Needham, committee of religious education.

The dinner was in charge of Edith Winn who was assisted by Mrs. Ernest Llewellyn, Mrs. Joseph Duncan and Frances Hawkins. Clarke Heath headed a corps of waiters. Each table had a centerpiece arranged by Bertha Yerrinton.

The 1943 budget, as approved, provides an increase in the salary of Rev. Mr. Rice who has completed his seventh year as pastor.

UNITED for VICTORY

HELP THEM FIGHT by Saving Fuel . . .

Fuel will help win the war!

Fuel is needed to build armaments. It feeds our tanks, planes, and ships. It drives our war machines against the enemy!

Our railroads, tankers, and trucks must carry fuel to our war plants and fighting fronts. They cannot perform this task and at the same time provide you with as much fuel as you burned last winter.

War needs come first.

That is the reason you must conserve all kinds of fuel. Saving fuel in your home saves transportation for the war effort . . . saves you money . . . and adds to America's fighting power.

Pay cash if possible. If not, inquire at your local qualified lending institution about FHA Title I loans for repairs and improvements to save fuel. Federal Reserve credit restrictions have been relaxed in the case of loans to pay for fuel conservation work.

6 Ways to Save Fuel

1. If possible, convert your oil burner to coal.
2. Have your heating plant inspected and adjusted.
3. It's not too late to insulate walls and roof or attic. You can insulate your own open-floor attic. If you use loose-fill insulation, just pour it over the plaster laths and spread it evenly with a rake or hoe. Batt-type insulation should be fitted snugly in between the rafters. Hire an expert to insulate ceilings and walls.
4. Install storm windows and doors. They can be purchased completely painted and installed. Or, if you want to install them yourself, buy them unpainted and untrimmed.
5. Weather strip doors and windows with felt, wood, or metal. Tack felt or wood to wooden frames (glue it to metal frames). Hire an expert to install metal weather stripping.
6. Seal air leaks around windows and frame doors with caulking material. You can buy this material from weather-stripping contractors, hardware, and paint stores.

Pvt. Robert C. Paine Suggests Parents Send News To Sons In Service

Dear Sirs:

Today I received my weekly copy of the Arlington News through the courtesy of my mother and as I laid on my bunk reading about the happenings around town and about my friends, it dawned on me that maybe some of the other fellows from Arlington would like to have an Arlington News, too.

I decided on the spur of the moment to drop you this line in the hopes that you would publish it and that possibly the parents of the other boys in the Armed Forces would take after my mother and let their boys hear what is going on in their own home town. Above all things in these days of national unrest what is needed is morale. The Arlington News can help in supplying that.

Hope that some action may be taken on this suggestion. I remain Very Sincerely yours,

Robert C. Paine, Pvt., A.C.

Describes Experiences In London Air Raids

The general assembly of the Arlington Auxiliary police, on Monday evening, at the Junior High East, was treated to an unusually interesting program.

The speaker was Albert Konz of Arlington who returned from England three months ago. He told of his experiences as chief section warden and of the work done by volunteers.

After his interesting talk, a question and answer period followed. Among the questions was "What do you think of our Report Center in line with those you have seen?" He answered, "I saw your Report Center last Saturday - and to me it is most efficiently set up - has everything - in other words, 'it is tops'."

The surprise of the evening was the introduction of Sergeant Joseph White of the U. S. Army Air Forces. He was in three major actions, Hickham Field, Midway, and the Solomons. His father, Herbert White, is a member of the Arlington Fire department.

To Limit Meetings Of Legion To Save Fuel

In absence of Commander Miller, who was kept to his home with a severe cold, the last Legion Post meeting was conducted by S. V. C. Charles Berg. Because of the oil shortage it was voted to carry on the business of the Post with only one meeting a month until further notice - on the second Tuesday.

The Post voted to contribute $25.00 to the Greater Boston United War Fund.

Two new veterans of World War No. 2 were admitted to membership in Post No. 39. Roger H. Anderson, 10 High Heath road and Joseph X. Cochrane, 87 Everett street. The oath was administered by Dept. Vice-Commander John L. Delay. Remarks of welcome were given by Chaplain Rev. John Nicol Mark.

The customary banquet tendered each year to the national commander by the State Department has been cancelled.

Frank Lane, chairman of the Wood Choppers committee, reported that due to the extreme cold weather, activities had ceased.

New Ration Board Hours

The hours of the Arlington War Price and Rationing Board have been changed to the following:

9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. daily, 7:15 p.m. to 9:15 p.m., Monday and Thursday evenings.

Renewals on gasoline rations must be applied for in person at the board office. A statement from applicant's company outlining briefly his duties will be necessary.

P. C. Buckley, chairman of the Town Honor Roll Committee, reported progress is being made and the Honor Roll would be erected very soon.

J. V. C. Elmer Scribner reporting for the sick committee stated that Comrade Chalmers Staples is ill at the Symes Hospital.

Former Adjutant, James J. Toner is now serving in the Navy as a C. P. O., stationed at Smith College in Northampton.
